

Chapter 17 Study Guide

Study all vocabulary words

What does the Constitution say about the power of the executive branch?

What are the qualifications for President?

What are the informal (unwritten) qualifications for President?

What are the characteristics of most presidents?

What is the president's term of office?

Which Amendment outlines the presidential term of office?

What is the order of succession to the presidency?

What is most important in analyzing a presidential debate?

What are the President and Vice President salaries?

Which president broke with the tradition of serving only two terms?

What are the powers of the Vice President?

What are the considerations in choosing a Vice President?

How many terms may a vice president serve?

What kinds of persons are most likely to be chosen for the cabinet?

What kinds of persons are most likely not to be chosen for the cabinet?

What is the advisory that is chosen to help and advise the president?

How many executive departments are seated in the president's cabinet?

What determines the power, role and influence of the cabinet?

What does the Director of the Office of Management and Budget do?

Which agency helps the president prepare and implement the budget?

Which office advises the president on matters of trade, energy, housing and farming?

Which office advises and coordinates military and foreign policy matters?

What office advises the president on scientific, engineering and other technology matters?

Which group would have the least influence on welfare reform?