

World History Chapter 9 Vocabulary and Concepts

a policy that let owners of industry set working conditions without government interference actively plan the economy.
Adam Smith
Birmingham
Britain's banking system communism
Edinburgh
employees.
employers
factory owners by union workers.
factory working conditions farming efficiency.
Florida
Glasgow
Glasgow
illness caused by unhealthy living conditions increasing nutrients in the soil Industrial Revolution
industrialization
land, labor, capital
Liverpool
London
machine-made goods
middle class
Midwest
not personally responsible for its debts population growth preservation of the environment railroad expansion
railway age
social security
Supreme Court
textile production
the greatest good for the greatest number of people.
the life expectancy of the average worker unions
West