

Study Guide for Americas Time – The Homefront

How much of the U.S. fleet was destroyed in the attack on Pearl Harbor?
How many American servicemen died in the attack on Pearl Harbor?
Prior to the attack on Pearl Harbor, what was America's attitude toward the rest of the world?
Compared to the rest of the world, how strong was the U.S. military prior to the attack on Pearl Harbor?
Prior to the attack on Pearl Harbor, America believed it could stay out of the problems in Europe and Asia and was protected by the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. This shows that America was _____ about world affairs.
After Pearl Harbor, what was America afraid of in regards to California and Japan?
How did Germany and Italy respond to the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor?
What kind of technology did FDR use to communicate with and calm the American people after Pearl Harbor?
How did FDR make the American people feel after the attack on Pearl Harbor?
How long did it take the automobile industry to convert from making cars to making tanks, jeeps and other war materials?
Who was "Rosie the Riveter?"
What percentage of the civilian work force were women in WWII?
What was "social fall out" from WWII
What was "the war effort."
In WWII people had to have stamps to buy sugar, coffee, meats and other groceries. They also had to have a sticker that determined how much gasoline you could buy. This system was called .....
Why did America inter Japanese Americans during the war?
What famous Director of the FBI was against the internment of the Japanese during WWII?
Who was the teen age idol who captivated the imagination of young girls in the WWII years?
What general led the Allied forces in Europe in WWII?
What did they call the Allied invasion of Europe from England to France?
What date did the invasion of France from England take place?
What was the Battle of the Bulge?

After the invasion of France, how long did it take the allies to liberate Paris?
When did FDR die?
Who became president after FDR died?
As the U.S. got closer to the Japanese mainland, the Japanese became more fanatical and resistant. What did they call the suicide attacks by young Japanese pilots against the American fleet?
In July, 1945 a conference was held at Potsdam between the U.S., England, and Russia. What was the purpose of the conference.
What kind of surrender terms did the allies offer to Japan to end the war?
What was the name of the airplane that dropped the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan?
How many Japanese cities were bombed with atomic bombs?
On what date did Japan surrender?
About how many American servicemen were killed in WWII?
Who made the final decision to drop the atomic bomb on Japan
What general led our forces in the war in Asia in WWII?
Vocabulary words:
endeavor immersed celestial invulnerable
interminable naiveté
fascism magnitude
embarkation somber despicable unprecedented incarcerated premeditated vigilant precious